If you've purchased an array that you're still paying off, you may need to settle the remaining balance or find a buyer willing to take over payments. "In most cases, solar panels will help sell your home for more money and quicker," says Catherine Lane, a home solar integration expert at SolarReviews. "However, it can depend on your location and how you purchased the solar panels. "Overall, they're perceived as a value, because they're lowering the power bill," said Andrew Tanner, global real estate advisor at Premier Sotheby's International Realty. Indeed, far from making a home harder to sell. Whether you have a power purchase agreement (PPA), lease, or retail installment contract (RIC), here's how EverBright streamlines the process to make it easy for you to sell your solar-energized home. With a RIC (also known as EverOwn), you own the system and agree to finance it over time —. According to Sam Vanderhoof, CEO of Recycle PV Solar, only 10% of decommissioned solar panels in the United States are recycled; the rest flow to landfills or are allocated for reuse. In some cases, homeowners have a hybrid structure where part of the system is owned, and part is financed through a lease or PPA. Pre-owned solar panels are sold in their original state, straight from their.
