

Rural solar photovoltaic panels are a scam

Overview

Did a salesperson knock on your door and promise free rooftop solar panels at no cost to you?

Or say you'll never have to pay another electricity bill because government programs, grants, or rebates cover your solar installation?

It's likely a scam. While there are some government-funded solar. Demand for solar-powered home systems has increased rapidly in the last several years. Scams, schemes and straight-up fraud abound in the dark underbelly of an otherwise light-filled industry. Promises of “free solar panels” or talk of “special programs” and offers that end on a very tight time frame are warning. sumer complaints about a small number of unscrupulous solar companies. gov/state-consume purchase agreement, or subscribing to a community solar. But when a solar energy salesman stopped by in May 2022 promising no more electric bills and a $30,000 tax rebate, she signed a form on his iPad that she thought was just paperwork. “Now I have an $89,000 loan, 50 panels on my roof, and my porch leaks,” says the 75-year-old retired bar and.
